

Please do not allow Indian's telephone privacy law and "no-call list" to be weakened. Please do not allow Banks or other institutions to start calling and soliciting me, just because I do business with them. We all have to have a bank, but that should not mean that we should be subjected to unwanted phone calls. Please respect my privacy and keep the Indiana laws strong.

Thank you,

Robin Davidson